JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that defendant, Teresa R. Vogt, is hereby placed on probation on Count 80 of the Indictment for a term of five years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and fine in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
3. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation;
6. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Probation Officer within thirty days of any material change in her economic circumstances so that the Court may adjust the payment schedule for the fine; and
7. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $18,000, which shall bear interest as provided by law. A sum of $1,000 shall be paid immediately, and the balance of the fine shall be paid in monthly installments of $500 during the period of probation. These payments shall begin within 30 days after the date of this judgment.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

The Court grants the government's oral motion to dismiss the remaining counts of the Indictment as to this defendant.

Bond is exonerated.

Once all the financial obligations are paid in full and the Probation Office is satisfied that the defendant is likely to or has been complying with the terms of Probation, either the defendant or the Probation Officer can apply to the Court and seek termination of Probation in the time allowed by law.

USA vs. Teresa R. VogtDocket No.: CR 05-316 DSF

The Court advised the defendant of the right to appeal this judgment.

SENTENCING FACTORS: The sentence is based on the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3553, including the applicable sentencing range set forth in the guidelines, as more particularly reflected in the court reporter's transcript.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
